

The FCC is currently considering deregulation/relaxation of regulations that could consolidate the airwaves into the hands of a few wealthy, powerful magnates with decidedly un-altruistic motives. I want rules in place that serve the public, rather than private, interest. I oppose taking a vote that leads to more media consolidation. On June 2nd, I urge you to retain the current ownership rules.

I urge the FCC to avoid this dangerous challenge to our democratic systems.

Even now, news outlets in the United States are largely owned by reactionary interests, and many Americans, seeking a more balanced, thorough, and responsible information source are turning to Canada and England for the honest news reportage not available in most markets in the US.

Don't continue the degradation. Keep the airwaves truly free and accountable to something other than monied interests.
